

College Changes Everything

Katherine Shea-Sword – ACCESS Alumna

- Education: Woodrow Wilson High School; B.A., Virginia Wesleyan College; J.D., Regent University School of Law
- Current Position: Attorney, Rutter Mills
- Proudest Moment: Pursuing my dreams of bettering myself and providing for my family.
- Making a Difference: Not only am I able to provide for my family, but I am able to help other people provide for their families with the work I do through Rutter Mills and the Virginia Legal Aid Society.

"ACCESS is all about information, education, and opportunity. It makes a difference to every student, every day. Whether you're a middle school student learning about possibilities and pursuing your dreams or a high school student achieving your dreams through graduation, ACCESS is something the community needs to stand behind because it changes the community every day."
